Description

A substantial solid mahogany bracket clock dating to the early 20th Century. Made in the early 19th Century style, it has a dome top with solid brass finials, reeded brass inset side pillars, boxwood stringing with a central satinwood inlay of a butterfly and stands on brass ball feet. It has a 6 inch diameter white enamel dial which is signed by the original retailer Mappin and Webb. It has a high quality 8 day Movement that sounds the hours and halves on a gong and was made by Vincenti. The clock comes complete with a key and a set up and running video.
