Description

A Good Quality mahogany mantel clock, dating to the early 20th Century. The case is in the style of an English bracket clock, but of smaller proportions,. It has a break arch top, with brass corner finials The convex enamel dial is flanked by brass columns, has inlaid satinwood panels, a wavy edge base with brass ogee bracket feet. It has an 8 day Paris made movement that strikes the hours and halves on a gong. The dial is signed by Maple & Co. the Quality House Furnisher. The clock comes complete with keys and an instruction video. Overall a really good clock in excellent original condition.
