Description

A mahogany four glass mantel clock dating to the Edwardian period. It has a rectangular case, with thick bevel edge glass windows, rounded corners and bracket feet. The silvered dial has a Roman numeral chapter ring, and subsidiary dials for regulation and chime/silent. The German made 8 day ting-tang movement sounds the quarters and hours. The dial is signed by the original retailer Anderson and Mackellar of Glasgow. The clock comes with keys and a set/running video if required.
