

Large Oil Painting of a Seascape

Sold

REF: 147387

Height: 140 cm (55.1")

Width: 125 cm (49.2")

Description

A large oil on canvas, depicting a rough sea with sailing yachts in full sail. Contained within a gilt frame, by a well known artist Rene Clarot. Canvas size 120cm x 105cm

1882-1972 The Belgian post-impressionist painter René Clarot was a student at the Academy of Brussels from 1896-1905. He gained wide recognition, especially in France, where he exhibited extensively and was a member of the Lessor circle. The gallery L'Escalier in Brussels devoted an exhibit to a retrospective of Clarot's work.

René Clarot lived and worked in Anderlecht, Elsene and Paris. He studied under H. Richir and C. Montald at the Art Academy of Brussels from 1896 until 1905. He was a well known painter of landscape, city and river views. His work is displayed in numerous museums and public collections including the Museum de Charlier (Brussels) and the provincial museum of Namur. He is listed in Benezit.